The Blue Moon Turtle Grandmother Speaks

Once,
in a blue moon,
out of the blue,
Truth,
an unusual occurrence,
yes.

Rarer, still more extraordinary,
is the pink moon,
the blossoming lotus Buddha moon
of the Grandmother Turtle, summoned by the steady drum
of silvery waves, weaving, laying her eggs,
journey seeds.

Once, in a blue moon,
the seven sisters radiance sparkles and tones
a new heart temple.

Fertility is assured.
The quickening has begun.

Ellen Thea

Ellen Thea, M.S*. has been a pioneer in integrative healing arts for more than sixty years. Her work is multi-faceted, cross- and inter-disciplinary. She is an award-winning, internationally recognized performance poet and mixed media artist, blending and inventing words, weaving movement and percussion into poetry, creating engaging, energetic visceral performances. She was dubbed the Hippie Diva in South Florida for her strict attention to detail, rehearsal, perfectionism and professionalism. Ms. Thea is also an integrative holistic counselor, interweaving tarot, astrology, crystals and energy work, with a master's degree (*M.S.) in marriage and family therapy, with specialized certification in medical family therapy.

Cobalt Poets Series # 702 ~ March 24, 2026