

one slo
comfortable screw up against the wall with a bang

made her laugh outloud so hard she choked the room spun just as hard he hasent even eaten anything today its fucking 9 maybe soon after this next trip next tour some saved money its time to open a Tiki bar downtown going to need fruit

....going to...need fresh fruit fucking cheap ass umbrella fell into 3 parts.. these will never dooo corner eyed caught her lookin with young eyes through hip glasses that look that runs away and should says cali is going to fall in the sea and this scorpio is going to be engaged soon and north far enough is best to view the end of the world maybe living in the woods and afraid of turning into a "ravenous" windigo that normally never speaks she says with a youthful tongue "if someone loves you they stick by you even if you suck" and he urges the stick from her grasp from the other end he states. "if someone loves you they give you the chance to grow...unconditionally" she has no faith
he has no blame
he pours 2 zombies
sex on the beach
a perfect manhattan and 3 pink ladies

Christian Alvarez

Christian Lawrence Alvarez was born in the bay area and currently resides in the Mojave Desert. His musical endeavors are worldwide.. performing along side everyone from Saul Williams, The Treme Brass Band, Z-Trip, Money Mark, members of the Stan Kenton Orchestra, Miles Davis groups, Buddy Rich groups, Death Row Records, Thavius Beck, and Shahzad Ismaily to name a few. Mr. Alvarez has hosted numerous radio and internet shows. He's held rolls and soundtrack credits in feature films and stage. Christian has published two collections of poetry. "The Beat" through Shoebox Volumeknob Press and "My Menology" through Unadorned Press. Christian has been featured in Take-it-to-the-streets, Every Reason, Flex Writers, 10k poets, Sic of Em, and The Rancho Mirage Library.