Treat me like a prayer

Hold me in the morning and see the new light shimmer in my eyes

Make time for me, because my love language is quality time

Wrap me in your arms and tell me everything will be okay

Take me out on adventures, because I do like to try new things

Ask me hard questions and I'll do my best to answer

Sit quietly with me, it's okay for us to just be together

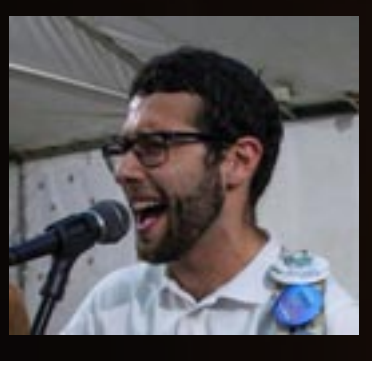
Help me understand so I can meet you where you are

Create with me, and I will be a worthy partner

Write me on your heart and I will be with you always

Cobalt Poets Series # 459 ~ Decmber 22, 2020 ~ PoetrySuperHighway.com/cobalt /

Ben Pagliaro



Ben Pagliaro is a songleader and Jewish rapper/spoken word artist who believes in bringing prayer to life. He wants you to pretend that we're all at camp together so imagine yourself out on picnic benches with the wind blowing through the trees. If it makes you smile, then you're in the right place.